

DIAZ PARTISANS BEING UPROOTED

New Mexican Regime to Deprive Them of All Power.

MANY FLEE FROM THE COUNTRY

Control of Mexican National Railways to be Wrested from Group of Cientificos—Limantour a Prominent Director.

El Paso, June 19.—Control of the Mexican National railways, representing hundreds of millions of dollars, which now lies in the hands of a group of Cientificos, close friends of former President Diaz, is to be wrested from them at once by the new Mexican government at the direction of Francisco I. Madero and associates.

This means that the enemies of the revolutionary party are to be deprived of the last vestige of their power. The Cientifico group, of which Senor Jose Yves Limantour, is the head, now has a majority on the board of directors. However the board can be changed by order of the president of the republic. The present government will have enough members of the dominant faction to destroy the power of the old Diaz clique and replace them with men who can be depended upon. This action will be taken within a week.

Cientificos now in the city of Mexico are panicking and a majority of them are preparing to leave for the United States or Europe, following the example of Limantour and Escandon. The government, through the influence of Madero, is now preparing to make a rigid examination of all contracts and treasury accounts in which the Cientificos have figured.

The program resembles that of the United States government in its propping of the big corporations. Many will, no doubt, lose their concessions. The investigation will also involve an inquiry into the affairs of a great corporation, representing the Pearson Oil interests which are backed by British capital and controlled by Lord Cowdray, formerly Sir Weetman Pearson.

The investigation is to be hastened on account of the report received by the government that the Pearson company is considering a plan to transfer its holdings in Mexico to financiers interested in the John W. Gates Texas Oil company and the Gulf Refining company. The presence in the capital of representatives of these two corporations has added conviction in the minds of the new leaders of the truth of these reports.

CONFLICT OVER TAFT

President's Presence Desired in Two Places at Same Time.

Indianapolis Civic Organizations and Railway Men Storm Washington with Telegrams.

Indianapolis, June 19.—The civic organizations that have arranged for a "safe and sane" Fourth and have been expecting the coming of President Taft to contribute to the celebration of the day have come in conflict with the Associated Brotherhood of Railroad Men, in grain service, who have prepared a demonstration at the fair grounds. Both want the presence of the president at their respective places of amusement, but both events come off at the same time and a conflict exists.

The civic organizations have a track meet at the ball park and want the president to present the medals. The railroad men will have a head-on collision of locomotives at the fair grounds and want the president to attend. Charges of admission will be made at both places, but the civic organizations say their money is to be used only to defray expenses, while the fair grounds show is being put up for private gain and that the railroad men want to make money. Both sides are storming Washington with telegrams and letters, but it is not known which side the president will decide to attend.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

Not having shared his bed and board for six years and having provided part of my own board, I have paid my own bills and have made none except by Mr. Beverly's order as any other servant would without pay.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. V. BEVERLY.

LAST MEETING OF THE SEASON HELD AT RECREATION PARK

The D. A. R. met for the last time this season on Friday last at Recreation Park. Their number was increased to forty by the presence of guests. Pursuant to the suggestion contained in a letter which had been received, the question of a sane Fourth was discussed and a committee appointed to deal with the same, consisting of Miss Mary Goddard, Mrs. William B. Hatch, Mrs. P. R. Cleary, Mrs. Arthur Sullivan, Mrs. T. W. Paton was appointed as the new member of the executive board. It was reported by Mrs. Owen, that, owing to the assistance of Philo Ferrier, some additional unmarked Revolutionary soldiers' graves had been discovered in a place near Saline, and within two weeks markers will be provided for these.

Mrs. Esther Johnson read an excellent paper on Oregon.

A picnic tea was partaken of, after which the society adjourned until Saturday, October 21. The study next year will be devoted to local history.

LITTLE ONE TURNS ON THE GAS, TWO DEATHS RESULT

Ann Arbor, June 19.—One of the saddest fatalities that has come to any family in Ann Arbor for years was the asphyxiation of Dorothy and Harold Stody, aged 4 and 2 years, respectively, Saturday night at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Stody, in this city.

Mrs. Stody put the little ones to bed Saturday night about 9 o'clock.

An hour and a half later when she went to put an older boy to bed, she noticed the odor of escaping gas as she passed the children's room, and, rushing in, found the baby boy dead and the little girl barely alive. Physicians were called and four hours later they said the girl would probably live. This morning at 5 o'clock, however, the little girl also died.

How the accident happened is not known, but it is surmised that the girl attempted to turn on the electric light, in a combination fixture that was at the head of the bed and that she got the gas cock instead. When the light did not appear, as she expected, it is surmised that she got tired and fell asleep.

The victims were buried today in one casket. Both parents are in serious condition from the shock.

SILVER WEDDING AT WHITE HOUSE

Social Event in Washington This Evening to Be Brilliant.

WHITE HOUSE GROUNDS ALIGHT

Great Company of Notables to Be Entertained—Handsome Gifts Already Received.

Washington, June 19.—Folks in Washington are awakening to the fact that the Taft wedding reception at the White House tonight is going to be unique in the annals of the national capital.

Thousands of the curious stood along the high iron fence enclosing the grounds of the executive mansion yesterday while dozens of workmen, rain dripping from their grimy hats and jumpers, strung miles of wire around the lawns and gardens and sojacketed the thousands of electric lights that will shed their radiance on the 5,000 guests expected to attend the function.

The illumination of the White House and grounds will be the most elaborate ever attempted. The historic structure itself will be outlined in streaks of fire, thousands of incandescent lamps will glow in the oaks and elms about the executive mansion, flooding the lawns with light, and searchlights on the roof of the state, war and navy buildings will throw colored beams of light on the playing fountain directly in front of the great portico where of the White House.

Practically all the preliminaries have been completed. The lawns have been newly clipped, the trees and shrubbery trimmed, the stand for the marine band completed. This afternoon the White House conservatories will be practically cleaned out and the interior of the White House decorated with wagon loads of cut flowers. The shops of Washington have been swept clean of Japanese lanterns that, enclosing incandescent globes, have been strung in a great square around the grounds just inside the iron fence that will divide the guests from the interested public. Dozens of tables scattered here and there among the trees will bear the bowls of punch and light refreshments. On the lawn the marine band will play. In the east room the engineers' band will play. It will be a long remembered outdoor fete if the fickle weather of Washington holds kind and true.

The presents which have been sent to the president and Mrs. Taft form the most splendid collection of silver Washington has ever seen. They are banded in the red room of the White House and the pile grows higher and higher every hour. Some of these gifts have come from foreign countries, but the great majority of them were given by friends in Washington. Those presents which were sent by organizations are particularly handsome. The tea set presented by the United States senate, the three dozen silver plates from the house of representatives, and the silver service from the United States supreme court are the first gifts ever made by these bodies to an individual, be he president or private citizen.

From Cincinnati have come numerous gifts. The Commercial club of that city, which has come in a body to attend the celebration, has sent a gorgeous collection of silver. The people of Maryland have presented a silver punch bowl, tray and ladle, while many organizations have remembered the distinguished couple with gifts. The members of the cabinet sent individual presents, as have many others in Washington intimately associated with the Taft administration.

The Philippine party of 1905, called "The Tafters," presented two solid silver Grecian ewers, twenty inches in height, and a solid silver waiter with the monograms of the president and Mrs. Taft marked "From the Tafters."

The Washington correspondents sent a solid silver fruit dish and the Gridiron club a solid silver pitcher and waiter engraved with the mark of the dates 1886-1911.

The army officers in Washington who served with the president in the Philippines sent a unique silver piece. The celebration began at noon today when the president was entertained at the Chevy Chase club by the Commercial club of Cincinnati, composed of old-time friends of the Tafts.

The invitation list for the celebration is interesting. It includes nearly 5,000 people, some of them from the Pacific coast. First of all, the president invited all the surviving members of the family of former presidents of the United States, beginning with Robert T. Lincoln, son of President Lincoln.

Then Mrs. Taft invited the class of Yale '78, of which the president is a member, and the members of the Skull and Bones society of Yale.

The members of the cabinet, of course, with their families were invited and all the members of congress and the congressional press galleries. Other officials were included.

READY FOR THE BIG SEMI-CENTENNIAL

100 Cleary Students Enjoy Picnic Excursion

The Cleary Business College excursion on Saturday was a thorough success. One hundred people, mostly students from the C. B. C., having gone. The weather was delightful after they reached Detroit. They went from there to Tashmoo Park on the steamer "Tashmoo," and Finzell's orchestra played on the boat afterwards for dancing in the pavilion. The game of baseball which the college team played with Mt. Clemens resulted in a score of 7 to 2 in favor of the latter team. It was an airtight game.

The lunch was eaten all together. Mrs. Cleary furnishing lunch for the ball team. Professor Cleary treated all to ice cream and coffee. The entire day was exceedingly satisfactory to all.

SMOKE FROM FURNACE CAUSES FIRE ALARM

A large amount of smoke with little fire caused some commotion at the home of Mrs. M. P. Thompson, 315 Ellis street, Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock. A large amount of old papers and other waste matter had been placed in the furnace. The back draft in the chimney seemed to be out of order and the smoke poured through the house upstairs and down and it looked for a short time as though there might be serious results and the fire department was called. No damage to speak of resulted, however.

PRES. JONES DELIVERS STRONG CLOSING ADDRESS

Students and citizens gathered Sunday evening in Normal Hall for the baccalaureate address, which was delivered by President L. H. Jones. The music of the evening was beautiful. Professor Alexander played the prelude to Wagner's "Parsifal" on the organ in a masterly manner. A Meditation on a Back Prelude by Gounod was played beautifully by Professor Alexander at the organ, Miss Owen, violinist, and Miss Lowden, piano. After the address Mrs. Annis Gray, accompanied by violin, piano and organ sang a solo, also by Gounod, "O Divine Redeemer." Mrs. Gray was in superb voice and the number was one of exceeding beauty.

President Jones said in part: "The name of Herbert Spencer will long be remembered as standing for one of the chief liberators of human thinking from the shackles of dogma. The service thus rendered is great enough to incline us all to forgive him his lack of omniscience—a lack, be it said, which he seems never to have discovered. His lack of consecutive training in early life, doubtless accounts to some extent for his failure to see the inconsistencies of his so-called system of philosophy."

The ground of his errors as it seems to me, is his tendency to universalize a principle whose workings he has investigated in one province of experience only, a tendency, be it said, which is in direct opposition to the basic principles of his own philosophy. He assumes that a principle which works well in the physical world, for instance, will work well in any other province, though the facts in other fields may prove to be totally different from the facts of the physical world.

COMMITTEES BUSY WITH FINAL PREPARATIONS, URGE YPSILANTI RESIDENTS TO BE LOYAL IN EVERY WAY--DECORATIONS PLAY IMPORTANT PART

Let everybody go down town to-night and see the street decorations. They are beautiful. It will give you an eager inspiration to dress your home in holiday attire and have your residence speak its welcome to the thousands of strangers who are coming here at our special invitation.

The Big Parade. Will be formed on South Huron Street. All those taking part in the parade will report to Prof. Ford as early as one o'clock p. m. Thursday, the 22d, as the parade starts promptly at 2 p. m.

Line of March. Starts on South Huron moves north promptly at 2 p. m. past the Masonic Temple, G. A. R. Headquarters, to Cross street, east on Cross street to Michigan Central tracks, counter march on Cross westward to Adams street, on Adams street east to Congress, east on Congress to Huron.

The automobile part of the parade will continue and plans to go over every important street in the city especially the best decorated streets. So its up to you to make your street inviting. Get out and decorate your house and then help your neighbor and make your street the best decorated street in the city.

Last Appeal to Your Civic Pride. Custom and self-respect forbids us to receive our personal invited guests in our every day garb, or working clothes.

Ought not these same rules to govern us in the appearance of our house and property.

We have invited 25,000 guests to visit us, let's dress up our homes in the holiday attire—red, white and blue. Hang out lots of patriotic colors. Every star and every stripe speaks a welcome to our guests. Did you ever go where there were no signs of welcome? What a cold, frosty place it was a matter how respectable it may have been.

Don't let it be said of our fair city, there was one foot of ground that did not offer a sign of welcome. We know you feel about the matter just as we do, and are only waiting for your neighbor to do first. That's a mistake.

DOVES LEAVE "THE ARK"

Joe Sim of 364 16th street, Detroit, is interested in carrier pigeons. To teach them to fly long distances and return to their home he brings a basket full of them, about 20, out to Ypsilanti and lets them loose. Several people were seen Sunday morning standing by the "Ark" intently looking up into the ethereal blue. It was about 8 o'clock. The pigeons were circling higher and higher above the city. They refused to light on the "Ark" or return to it. These sensible birds, Joe says, will take about fifteen minutes to get their bearings. They were released at 7:45 and sure enough at 8 o'clock Joe announced, "They're off, they will be home by 9." Each is numbered and marked and the time of arrival will be punched in its identification ticket when the bird reaches home.

The association gives prizes for the swiftest birds. Joe says they expect to fly from Chicago to Detroit soon.

MORE HOMES MUST BE OPENED TO G. A. R. VETERANS

(By Rep. H. C. Rankin)

The citizens who open their homes to lodgers during Encompment and who have not communicated personally with Capt. Woodman who is chairman of entertainment committee, are respectfully urged to do so.

We do not want any mix up if we can prevent it and only one man and one committee can make assignments rightly.

There are still I feel confident, many homes in this city which are not filled up with guests to be. Unfortunately every household does not have the paper. I would like to ask the many who do take the Press, if each subscriber will not regard himself or herself as on the entertainment committee. Won't you please put yourself out a little for the Encompment?

Will you not make a personal call this evening on any of your neighbors who do not have access to the Daily Press and urge them to open their homes to the utmost capacity for lodgers, men and women.

Find out how many each neighbor who has not sent in word to Capt. Woodman will take. Please phone the result of your search to the Captain.

We do not want to "fall down" on this matter of caring for guests. Fifty cents per lodging each will pay. The guests are the pick of each town in Michigan. The state will be represented with more people than ever before, more than ever can be given. It is our chance to advertise Ypsilanti's homes, Ypsilanti as a place in which to live.

Let's improvise beds for ourselves and give the guests our rooms.

Thursday night, for only one night, can the congestion be serious. We want 10,000 lodgings for that one night. There are only 4,500 thus far provided. 2,500 short for Thursday night.

What will you do personally to help out by making room in your home to the limit? Notify Mr. Woodman.

take. We respectfully request you to get out Old Glory first and then we are sure your neighbor will get into line.

And the entire city, including the "Oul Ark" will look like one big patriotic family.

Decorating committee—W. L. KISHLAR, ED. THOMPSON, H. E. VAN DE WALKER, C. J. BECKER, Chairman.

Drinking Water.

The Water Works Department are rising to the occasion in great shape regarding the drinking water during the Encompment. In this respect, as in others, it gives the committee an exalted opinion as to what Ypsilanti can do when she takes "off her coat" and gets down to business in earnest. Supt. Blanchard is "onto his job."

Watch for his big flag to be strung across the street from his work-shop on Adams street! Then follow suit; raise him one or go him one better as we used to say in old poker days in '61. Drinking places will be announced in the full page issue tomorrow.

To Pupil School Pupils.

State Patriotic Instructor M. C. Barney advises us that he will give out the same souvenir next Wednesday evening to pupils in attendance at the M. E. church camp fire that he presented to the 4,000 pupils in line last Wednesday in Flint during the dedication of Genesee county's Hall of Fame.

Tickets can be obtained for high school pupils only at W. H. Sweet's, high school students please observe this notice.

The W. R. C. especially desire your presence at the camp fire.

Children who live in the country within reach of Ypsilanti are most cordially invited by the Mesdames Mereness and Garty to procure their tickets at Davis & Kishlar's and grace the occasion with their presence.

As to the Flags.

The 1200 flags to be presented by the City Board of Education to the young people who make up the camp fire Wednesday night will be given out at the M. E. church as each pupil enters the edifice. First come, first served.

These flags are tastefully made up. The children will be allowed to retain the flags if they agree to march in the parade next day. It will be nice to keep them as souvenirs of the occasion. Country pupils share alike the same as those of the city schools.

Along the Trolley Lines.

We earnestly request that every reader of the Press along the electric line west will open his home for lodgers Thursday night to the full capacity and notify by phone or letter Capt. J. H. Woodman.

And will you not, brother granger, do a little missionary work. Won't you drive to your neighbors along the trolley and ask him to do likewise. Just for Thursday night.

Commencing tomorrow and for five days the Publicity Committee have made arrangements to run a full page each day in the Press for important matters regarding Encompment.

The entire program of next day's proceedings will be found in the Daily G. A. R. Calendar. Be on the watch for it. Other important matters will appear on page five each day.

This G. A. R. Calendar is intended especially for the "Ask Me" brigade. Everybody who wears an "Ask Me" badge will need to keep in touch with the Press reports. We want 500 volunteers besides the Boy Scouts to wear the "Ask Me" badge during the entire encompment.

Four young ladies will pin these badges tomorrow evening on the volunteers.

C. J. BECKER.

Among other features of interest to visitors at the Greatest State Encompment ever held will be a series of baseball games between teams especially picked for the occasion, for full details and line-up of teams see daily announcements in The Ypsilanti Press.

Don't fail to get one of the beautiful souvenir programs of the Encompment, just the thing to send to out-of-town friends, these will be on sale at prominent stores, at Headquarters, Masonic Temple, also can be procured from young men all over the city. These programs will have leaflets with all details of games, concerts, etc., and will be on sale at ten cents each, the only official souvenir issued.

MONDAY, JUNE 19, 1911

TAKE A FEW DAYS OFF.

We are just on the eve of the battle—a decisive and final struggle to preserve our reputation as a city. This coming week will be the most strenuous week Ypsilanti has ever experienced. We will probably have five times as many strangers in our city next week as we have ever had in any week in the city's history, and they must be entertained. They must be made welcome—not by a few welcome signs hung in the streets, but by the two indispensable elements in the formula of hospitality are a good bed and a good meal in homelike surroundings.

Nothing is so likely to make a stranger within our gates wish he were home as, when night comes on and he is wearied almost to the point of expiration, to find anything lacking in the way of a comfortable place in which to rest and sleep, and plenty of wholesome food to nourish him. We do not believe that anything elaborate will be expected by the Grand Army people. But things should be plain, clean, wholesome and homelike.

They have withstood hardships in the field and in the forum since. They will certainly want most the opportunity for informal renewing of old ties and comfortable places in which to sit and rest and visit and view the retrospect. So the city should be well supplied with seats upon which to rest,—not alone in the parks and along the business streets, in two or three blocks down in the center of the city, where the sun may pour down the warmest,—but in comfortable shady places near by. For within a radius of five blocks at least from the Masonic Temple the city will be literally alive with the old soldiers and their friends.

We are disposed to believe too that immediate attention ought to be given to make available every foot of space down town, where sleeping quarters with cots as beds can be brought into requisition. The soldiers are old soldiers and convenience to the central place of rendezvous will be especially appreciated by them. We believe that it behooves the citizens of our city to take a few days off if necessary, beginning on Tuesday if possible. Let us take as much of a vacation ourselves as we can this coming week. It is bound to be a strenuous week. It is sure to be an interesting week, and we believe we can profitably take a few days off; to take as much time as possible from our regular avocations and spend it with profit and pleasure to ourselves and our guests in supporting the city's reputation for entertaining the strangers within our gates.

DIRECTORY FOR NURSES IS OPENED AS AN AID TO THE PUBLIC

A nurses' directory has recently been established at Spalsbury's store and all nurses whether professional or practical are requested to register at their earliest convenience so that people desirous of securing a nurse will be able to get one on short notice. All nurses are asked to leave their phone number and their street address also to notify Mr. Spalsbury when they are on duty and when on call so that when a call comes for a nurse he may be able to know where to locate one at once.

This nurses' directory will fill a long felt want and will be of great practical value to both the doctors, who do not have the time to keep track of the nurses, when they have finished one case and are ready for another and also to the citizens who do not know where to find one when needed.

EMERGENCY TENT TO BE ERECTED BY SCOUTS TUESDAY

The Boy Scouts' emergency tent will be erected by the boys at 9 a. m. Tuesday, all scouts being requested to report in uniform at that hour on the corner of Pearl and Washington Sts.

Whenever any need whatsoever arises for the services of the Scouts, merely step to the nearest phone, whether it be the Bell or the Home phone, and call for "Boy Scouts headquarters," and then state where the accident has occurred. There will always be an automobile and a squad of boys ready to go at call, and there will be physicians at the tent to render any service beyond the capacity of the Scouts. With a full supply of Red Cross equipment and the knowledge of "first aid" which they have acquired during the past season, the Scouts will be able to attend to any but serious cases. The two doctors in attendance will give their services gratuitously.

The boys should bring their pocket axes or hammers when they come Tuesday morning for use in driving tent pegs.

The tent is to be equipped with electric lights, the two phones, hot and cold water which the gas company has put in, besides a full supply of Red Cross material.

Scouts, if you don't find your names in the list published recently, report in uniform Tuesday morning and an assignment will be given you.

H. S. ALUMNI HAVE BANQUET AT THE TEMPLE

An exceptionally good banquet was served the Ypsilanti High School Alumni association Friday evening by the Eastern Star at the Temple. At its close Miss Gertrude Breed of Ann Arbor, the vice-president, acting in the absence of W. N. Lister, the president, presided over the business session of the association.

Walter Hoyt, the treasurer, reported that $23.77 had been expended during the year and a balance of $83.30 remained in the treasury. Dr. H. H. Harper, '01, chairman of the nominating committee, announced the following nominations: President, D. L. Quirk, jr.; vice-president, John Thompson; secretary, Carrie Hardy, executive committee, J. P. Kirk, Clara VanFossen, George Burke; banquet committee, Don Braisted, Jessie Swaine, Mrs. Elizabeth Sweet Fletcher; nominating committee, J. P. Everett, Alfred Wortley, John Brooks. The secretary was instructed to cast a ballot electing all of these.

Walter Hoyt stated that Mr. McCann had sent out eight letters in the hope of increasing the subscriptions to the scholarship fund. In response Arthur Holmes and Charles Woodward had each sent $25. Messrs. Woodruff, McCann and Everett were appointed a committee to carry on this endeavor. Mr. Arbaugh and Mr. Ross both spoke in favor of the fund.

The question of making certain ones honorary members of the alumni association was settled by first making Supt. Arbaugh such a member, then all the teachers on the faculty and also Prof. S. S. Babcock.

The toastmaster, G. William Moore, '07, assumed charge of the evening and reported having received letters of regret that they could not attend from Judge Durfee, Ex-Chief Justice Burke of the state of Washington, now candidate for U. S. Senator, Mr. Hosie, Mr. Hodge, Judge Emerick of Alpena, Clint Stevenson of South Bend and Mr. Woodruff.

Responses to toasts were then made by Dwight L. Wilson, '05, on "Looking backward," by Frank D. Wells, by Ray A. Fletcher, '11, on "Promotion," by Fitch Forsythe, '02, of Ann Arbor on "The High School Alumnus," by Mrs. Jennie Kinnee, whose children were educated in the Ypsilanti schools and who served on the board a long time, and by Prof. S. S. Babcock. Mr. Moore and Mrs. Kinne each announced their intention of contributing to the scholarship fund. Old-time songs were interlarded through the evening, and it was past midnight when the company broke up.

Good Liver Remedy Free

When you suffer from any form of indigestion it is always well to take something for the liver, as usually the trouble lies there. If you are bilious, have a bloaty feeling after eating, if you belch, if your skin is yellowish you may be sure it is liver trouble.

What you need is something to stir up the liver, to arouse the gastric juices so that they will aid in the digestion of your food. A very good remedy for this, and one highly recommended by those who have used it, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which you can obtain at any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. But if you have any doubt about its merits, and would prefer to try it first, send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will promptly send you a free sample bottle.

Thousands of people first learned of this remarkable cure for stomach, liver and bowel troubles through a free sample. Mrs. Frank Lilly of Plainview, Ill., sent for one and it cured her and she is open in saying that she will never take pills or strong cathartics again, as Syrup Pepsin acts so mildly. Mr. W. L. Bryant, the Postmaster at Sardis, Tenn., says he will never be without it again. No sick person can afford to ignore a remedy so highly endorsed as this. It is good for all the family from infancy to old age, because it is mild, free from griping and yet promptly effective. Furthermore, results are absolutely guaranteed or money will be refunded.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. FOOT TORTURE

Rub on Ezo and the Pain and Burning and Aching will Vanish.

Foot misery is now a thing of the past. It matters not how sore your feet are, or how swollen or painful, one rub with Ezo will make them feel fine and comfortable.

Duane Spalsbury is the agent for Ezo in Ypsilanti and every reader of the Daily Press who has any foot troubles ought to get a twenty-five cent jar today.

Ezo is a different foot remedy; it is a refined ointment which is quickly absorbed by the pores and soothes and heals the inflammation. It quickly takes the agony out of corns and bunions and makes the feet strong.

Ezo is a good thing to have on hand at all times, nothing better for smarting, chafing or itching skin. For use after shaving, for burns, sunburn, rough hands, eczema, blackheads and redness of the nose. Ezo, 25c at Duane Spalsbury's.

PRES. JONES DELIVERS

"the inevitable re-actions entailed by one's actions." My contention is not against the existence of such a law in nature; but against its promulgation as the only law of moral culture, or as the chief expedient of teacher or parent in moral discipline. I object to the universality of the law.

"Spencer begins his first series of instances thus:—When a child falls, or runs its head against the table, it suffers pain, the remembrance of which tends to make it more careful for the future; and by an occasional repetition of such experience it is eventually disciplined into proper guidance of its movements."

"The next illustration, following the foregoing series, is that of a child who in school or at home, has made a litter on the floor, a social action surely, involving a possible moral question. So Herbert Spencer evidently thinks, too. He has said, 'The truly instructive and salutary consequences are not those inflicted by parents (or teachers); but they are those inflicted by nature herself.' He then says that the proper disciplinary punishment of the child who has created a litter is that he be compelled to clean it up. A good doctrine no doubt! But compelled by whom? By nature, according to his doctrine. For the punishment must be such as would naturally bow from the conduct in the absence of parental opinion or interference."

"Imagine the absence of parental opinion or interference; how soon will the boy clean up the litter he has carelessly or wilfully made? Spencer gives himself away in his next question—abandon now his whole theory—that of natural consequences as the correct disciplinary punishment for moral delinquencies—the theory, by the way, which it has taken him fifteen pages to establish—and goes over to a rational system of humanly conceived punishment, related to human nature and the laws of social life—precisely as any great thinker or teacher must do in the end. 'The labor of putting things in order again is the true consequence of having put them in disorder.' And he advised the parent or teacher to compel the child to do this every time he disregards the law of order. Mind you, he advises the parent to 'see to it.'"

"There is no corrective punishment that can be measured out mechanically by nature, i. e., as natural consequences of the action itself. The chief difficulty with Spencer's correction must be of human origin. theory is two-fold, viz., 1. It is low in its tone, cold in its method, mechanical in its application, and at best touches only the more sordid aspects of life. Second, by this method, without human intervention the child's progress would be so low that a single life time would not be sufficient to attain human character."

"I long for a generation of teachers who can come to consider as immature rather than vicious, and who can become helpers to these children in developing in themselves the standards of the spiritual life."

Will Jones.

"It's THE SAME THING AS MURDER!" in the ranks, where he was given such a reception as only an old comrade could have counted on.

Far up the Platte, after the army had got well into the Indian country, a dozen men were cut off from the command one day. It was a race for life. The horse of a trooper fell with a broken leg, and Lieutenant K. took the man up behind him. Old Jack came in carrying double, an arrow grazing his quarter as he made the last half mile.

Farther west it was Old Jack who suddenly raised an alarm one midnight just in time to save the troop from attack. A week later he was bitten by a rattlesnake, and he was ordered to be shot, as has been done in a score of like cases, but Company A would not have it so, and Providence sending a heavy rainstorm to stop the march, heroic doses of whiskey were poured down his throat, and in the course of a few days he was all right and kicking up his heels as of yore.

Not long after this, one day while the brigade was marching along under the forks of the upper Platte, Old Jack's rider ventured too far from camp, and he was rushed by half a dozen Indians. He dismounted and covered them with his revolver over the saddle. The horse stood like a rock. The savages yelled and waved blankets and fired their rifles, but they could not stampede him. In the midst of the excitement he saw the relief party while it was more than a mile away and neighed a shrill call of recognition and a warning to ride fast. Is it at all strange that the men of his company loved their fellows? There were just five men in Company A out on the prairie, and had they some day been obliged to accept fifty-five hard-tack for a full day's rations Old Jack would have shared evenly with the men. That's how much they thought of him.

OLD JACK, A WARTIME HERO

By J. H. ROCKWELL.

MOST men like a horse, but only a cavalryman takes a horse into full partnership or gives him that admiration which heroes deserve. Love for Old Jack began at Gettysburg, when he saw the captain who rode him cut off from his command and called upon to surrender. He shouted his defiance, gave Old Jack the spur and that horse brought him over seven fences and a great ditch back to his company. A bullet had nipped the gallant steed, and the men cheered him as they wiped the blood away with their handkerchiefs.

Late that fall after a slashing fight on a Virginia meadow one afternoon we found Old Jack standing over the dead body of his master. Other horses were galloping wildly about here and there, but Old Jack stood unmoved by the excitement about him. Wounded horses approached to beg for sympathy, but he drove them away for fear they would injure the man at his feet.

He was with the army up and down the Shenandoah valley during a long campaign, and one night when a terrific storm stampeded 300 horses over to the enemy he alone returned. He raided and fought through that memorable year of 1864 and was wounded twice, but when the last campaign came he was ready for it, and when the final surrender of the enemy was made the white flags almost brushed his nose. Only a day or two before this a piece of shell had given him a severe hurt, but when driven to the rear with hundreds of other wounded horses he literally fought his way back to the front.

When he returned from Appomattox at the close of the war a quartermaster got hold of him, but when it became known by his old brigade that they were to go west Old Jack was put on the active list again and went with them.

At Fort Leavenworth, where they weeded out the horses preparatory to the long trip to the Colorado line, Old Jack was led away to be branded with the letter "C" and sold to the highest bidder at public auction. Company A, to which he had been attached, resolved and protested and argued against it, but to no avail. However, before the degrading iron had touched his shoulder Second Lieutenant K. bought him, and he was brought back to his old place and the warm affection of the men with whom he had served so faithfully and so long, the day came when there had to be a final parting. Two hundred of the men were pushing a fresh Indian trail when Old Jack, going at an easy gallop, put his foot into a gopher hole and broke a fore leg. Two hundred men groaned aloud at the sight of the poor beast standing there in the shadow of certain death. There was neither water nor grass for miles around, and, anyhow, the wolves would pull him down after a few hours, and he deserved a better death. And yet no one could be found willing to kill him.

"Strip off the saddle and shoot him." That was the order that came back from the head of the column, and that was the order given by Captain K. to Sergeant B. The saddle was removed, and, although Old Jack must have been suffering intense pain, he did not utter a sigh, only his eyes seemed to open a little wider than usual, and he appeared somewhat worried and anxious as he looked around.

"Captain, I can't do it; I simply cannot," replied the sergeant. "Give that order to some one else."

A second and a third man were named, but all asked to be relieved of the unpleasant duty. Then a corporal stepped out and placed the muzzle of his revolver to Old Jack's ear, but a hundred men shouted in chorus, and he did not pull the trigger.

"Compliments of Colonel C., with orders to shoot that horse at once," announced a messenger from the front. "Sergeant B., put that poor beast out of his misery," ordered the captain.

"I've got to do it or stand a court martial, I suppose," growled the sergeant.

The Delights In Baking With CALUMET BAKING POWDER

To fully appreciate the real pleasure of baking, buy a can of Calumet and as a test bake a batch of biscuits.

See how light and wonderfully raised they come from the oven.

Then break one of them open and note how thoroughly, evenly and fluffily the dough has risen.

And the final test—the one that counts—butter and taste.

This test will prove to you that Calumet is the most dependable Baking Powder for every purpose.

It will prove its economy over the high-price trust brands and its great superiority over the cheap and big can kinds.

For Calumet is highest in quality—and moderate in cost.

Received Highest Award World's Pure Food Exposition.

We're Ready - Are You?

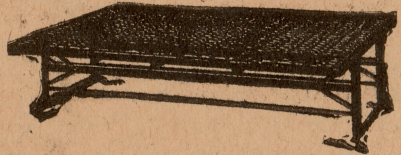

This is the week we advertise Ypsilanti. We must make our guests comfortable, our homes must look their best. The old and worn out furniture and rugs must be replaced with new.

Your porch, first of all, should be attractive. Some people drag all the old furniture out doors that they are ashamed to use within. A hundred fold more visitors will see your porch than ever will look on the inside of your home. A few pieces of OLD HICKORY furniture, a VUDOR porch shade adds greatly to the comfort and appearance of your porch, yet they cost but a few dollars at Mack and Mack's.

About that new spring and mattress. We have a full stock, all sizes, any price. The bed springs cost $2.00, $3.00, $5.00, $8.50, $10.00 and $15.00.

Mattresses at $3.00, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, $9.00, $10.50, $13.50 and $15.00. Mattresses for cots, $1.75, $2.50, $3.50, $5.00. Sanitary couch pads, $3.50 and $5.00.

Steel sanitary couches, the kind that don't sag, $4.50. A heavier and better one (has eight legs), $8.50.

Pillows that even soldiers can sleep on, $2.00, $3.00 to $5.50.
